

Friday, Sept 12, 2014
Movie begins at sundown

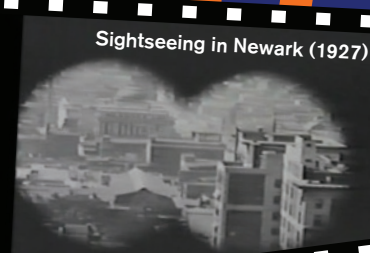

Newark Riverfront Revival, Rutgers University, Newark,
& Rutgers University, Newark History Department present

Newark Riverfront Park

Raymond Blvd near 1 Somme St, Newark, NJ 07105
#1 bus to Ferry & Somme Streets, walk north 2 blocks.
10-minute walk from Newark Penn Station.
Bring lawnchairs, blankets, and picnic dinners!

MOVIE NEWARK MIXTAPE

Cities exist in brick & concrete but also live as dream images and fantasy locations. On Friday, September 12, 2014, come to Newark's riverfront for the debut of Newark Movie Mixtape, a composition of over 20 feature films, promotional clips, music videos, and more featuring Newark & Newarkers.

FREE &
OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

From silent shorts made by Thomas Edison (1890s) to Alfred Hitchcock's Shadow of a Doubt (1943), Brian De Palma's Wise Guys (1986), and the "Wrong Side of the Tracks" video by the Artifacts (1994), this screening shows Newark over the course of a century. Come relax on the River-Watching Hill and see 20 real & imaginary Newarks projected over the skyline.

Learn more
www.newarkriver.wordpress.com
(201) 341-8311
newarkriverfront@gmail.com
@newarkriverfrnt

Friends of Riverfront Park